

The Lunatic Brigade

LEO SEEGER

Welcome to the lunatic brigade
Step right up and join the hit parade
Stand in line and promise to be faithful to delusive fable
Welcome to the lunatic brigade

Marching down the boulevards of shame ranting, raving multitude ordained
Writhing in the quagmire of fictitious self inflicted sin
Welcome to the lunatic brigade

Oh man it's such a gas
When you live in fear of punishment salvation comes with dying

Bowing down in ignorance to faith
Sacrificing life in grovelling praise
Pleading for redemption to a figment of imagination
Welcome to the lunatic brigade

Oh man it's such a gas
When you live in fear of punishment salvation comes with dying

Fall upon your knees and be afraid
Concocted scriptures there to be obeyed
Dedicate your days to barefaced lies
Welcome to the lunatic brigade

Oh man it's such a gas
When you live in fear of punishment salvation comes with dying
Oh man it's such a gas
When you live in fear of punishment salvation comes with dying

Swinging lunatics around the room
Singing lunatics around the moon

Oh man it's such a gas
When you live in fear of punishment salvation comes with dying
When you live in fear of punishment salvation comes with dying
